SUMMER 2024 NEWSLETTER

Hello again everyone. To some extent I hesitate to call this a Summer Newsletter in view of the relatively poor weather we have been experiencing. Apologies for this, hopefully things will improve over what remains of the Summer period.

This year has been a busy one so far. As mentioned in my previous Newsletter I have become a member of the Nottingham Society of Artists, and as such have already participated with some success in a couple of their exhibitions. See further on for details of their next show in which I will be featured.

I also have been invited to become a full participating member of the Cover/Uncover Art group with whom I exhibited at Stamford earlier in the year. We are a collection of Fine Artists that graduated from Nottingham University in recent years. Again, for details of exhibitions involving this group see further on.

I am pleased to say that the painting shown below i.e. Homage to Sheeler and de Chirico was shortlisted for the Harley Open Show on the Welbeck Estate in Nottinghamshire. Unfortunately, it didn't get selected for the actual exhibition but in view of the large number of applications I was not too disappointed. The show commenced on the 27th July and runs until 13th October 2024. It is well worth a visit in itself plus the various other facilities that are available including café, museum, farm shop and garden centre.

Below are featured two of my latest paintings. The first one is entitled 'Keep Out' and features an urban scene in Manchester, although in effect it could be anywhere. The second one is Frank Lloyd Wrights Iconic Spiral House In Pheonix Park Canyon which continues the theme of 'Modernism' that runs through a major part of my work. I am currently working on another Frank Lloyd residence i.e. the Circular Sun House also in Pheonix.
